WORK OF THE

PHILIP SCHUYLER CHAPTER

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

1923

INTRODUCTION

Under the authority of the Philip Schuyler Chapter, vital records of the greatest historical value have been obtained from the existing stones in Mt. Ida Cemetery, Pawling Avenue, Troy, N. Y.

The work was carefully done by an experienced genealogist, who found the task extremely difficult, as many of the stones lie flat and are nearly covered with sod.

"This burial ground is situated on the east side of Pawling Avenue, and is bounded on the north by the Poesten kill, and east by Ida Lake. The land consisting of twelve and three-tenths acres was purchased by the city authorities on the 1st of January, 1832 . . . On the fifth of February, 1835, the city sold one hundred and thirteen perches of the land of the south part of these grounds to St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, which plat has been known as the 'Old Catholic burying-ground.' "—Sylvester History of Rensselaer County, page 250.

The entire plat became, through neglect, covered with weeds and shrubbery. Through the generosity of Mrs. Sage, it was cleared up but at that time many stones disappeared, and there seems to be no complete list of its vital records. The full epitaphs are not here recorded, unless curious or of some vital importance. "Sacred to the memory of ———, who departed this life," etc., has been shortened to "died."

Stern ruins Ploughshare drives elate
Full on thy bloom
Till crushed beneath the furrows weight
Shall be thy doom.

This dust was once informed by the Spirit of Genius and illuminated by the Beams of Science; these decayed lips once poured a stream of eloquence, original and forcible, pointed with Genius, Satire, and seasoned with Attick wit.

No further seek his merits to disclose
Or draw his frailties from their dread abode.
